OFFICIAL PROGRAM

WWW.SKATEORDIEFESTIVAL.COM

SKATE OR DIE FILM FESTIVAL

Before we go any further, the Skate or Die team - as well as our parenting sponsors Red Bearded Marketing, Rockstar Roller Derby, and The Farsighted - need to extend our truest thanks to our sponsors for the financial support, the filmmakers who have agreed to let this little ole upstart festival show their films, the vendors and food vendors who are here to make this experience that much cooler, Brookiellen Designs for the work on our official poster and several other behind the scenes needs, Misael Torres for lending us the enormous screen, David Kresge for his awesome PA system, and an extra special thanks to local filmmaker/designer/film scene stalwart Dan Tabor for designing the logo, putting together our great pre-show clips, and lending us his incredible equipment.

This film festival has been a long time dream of Festival Director Justin Harlan. And, along with his incredible team of Madeleine Koestner and Adrianna Gober, Justin is so excited to share this vision with everyone in attendance and those who couldn't be with us but still sent their support in the way of merchandise sales, donations, and being there for us through the planning. Unable to be with us this year, our absentee team member Blaine McLaren hopes to get more involved next year and we're thankful for the brainstorming and help he was able to give us this year.

Most of all, thank YOU for attending, supporting, and partying with us. More than anything, this festival is about sharing our love of film, music, and a variety of other things we enjoy. If you could just all do us one favor... and have fun... then we'd feel like our job here has been effectively accomplished.

With our love and gratitude,
Justin and the Skate or Die Team

10:00 PM THE PROFANE EXHIBIT

With segments from Nacho Vigalondo, Ruggero Deodato, Uwe Boll, Anthony DiBlasi, Sergio Stivaletti, Marian Dora, Yoshihiro Nishimura, Michael Todd Schneider, Jeremy Kasten, and the late Ryan Nicholson, this film is brutal, notorious, and worth the wait.

10:15 PM HORROR TRIVIA

5 rounds of horror trivia with prizes are being held in the food court for folks who aren't into extreme horror the likes of what is being played on screen. Grab your drinks before the film gets underway and head out for trivia on everything from 80s horror to found footage to sci-fi/horror films.

Hosted by Stark Raven and Clown Baby of Rockstar Roller Derby, with some help from Red Bearded Marketing's Luke Eccles.
